

I would like to go on record in support of removing the morse code proficiency examination, as well as consolidating several of the license classes.